First Grade Take Home Reading Program

Books

Student Responsibilities:

- Read your leveled book fluently and out loud each night
- Fill out your Home Reading Log each night
- Put books, Home Reading Log, folder and planner in back pack each night.
- Turn the above items in to your teacher each morning.

Teacher Responsibilities:

- Help students select their take home book.
- Assess students' reading level, comprehension level, and fluency on a regular basis.
- Give students daily opportunities to practice reading and using reading strategies.
- Notify parents of student's progress and/or concerns.

Parent Responsibilities:

- Listen to your child read each night they bring home a book.
- Initial your child's Home Reading Log every time that you listen to them read.
- Give lots of praise and positive support in this process of learning to read!

I have, or somebody read to me, my responsibilities of the Home Reading Program and I promise to do my part because I understand the importance that reading has on me and on my child, now and in the future.
